

SIGNATURE RECREATION

The program for the New Waterfront Metropark can transform it as a regional destination, providing unique opportunities for recreation, expansion of cultural opportunities, and direct access to the Maumee River and adjacent natural systems.

PROGRAMMING CRITERIA

- 01 Adventurous - heightened by the perception of risk
- 02 Unique - seldom found in the region
- 03 Universal - inviting and attractive to all demographics
- 04 Immersive - draws on all of the senses
- 05 Active - promotes healthy lifestyles, high energy
- 06 Variety - multi-layered with a diversity of experiences
- 07 Demand - a need within the region

Place a dot on your three favorite signature programs.

WHICH OF THESE SIGNATURE RECREATION PROGRAMS MIGHT BE WELL-SUITED FOR THIS NEW PARK?

HERITAGE HALL

Imagine a community center that can support a diverse range of programs for all ages including weddings, events, shows, and more.

- WHY?
- Structure for social gatherings
 - Year-round use
 - Potential for generating revenue

A. Indian Springs Metropark - White Lake, MI
B. Robinson Nature Center - Columbia, MD

PLACE A DOT HERE

PERFORMING ARTS

Think amphitheater seating and other gathering spaces with the flexibility to host a variety of events and festivals.

- WHY?
- Supports a local arts economy
 - Provides a central gathering space for the park
 - Potential for generating revenue

A. Curtis Hixon Waterfront Park - Tampa, FL
B. Tom Hanafan River's Edge Park - Council Bluffs, IA

PLACE A DOT HERE

DISCOVERY PLAYGROUND

The Discovery Playground will foster play and discovery, embracing fun while cultivating healthy development of children's physical and social well-being.

- WHY?
- Attraction for young age groups
 - Supports family activities
 - Promotes outdoor recreation

A. Brooklyn Bridge Park - NYC, NY
B. Woodland Discovery Playground - Memphis, TN

PLACE A DOT HERE

PLACE ADDITIONAL COMMENTS HERE!